

Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop's Luncheon.

Miss Elsa Renjes and Miss Meier were the complimented guests at a luncheon which was given Monday by Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop at her valley residence. Covers were laid for twelve. The ornamentation of the table was beautiful, consisting of Shasta daisies and violets. Large corsage bouquets of the latter flowers were found at each place, and worn during the afternoon by the bevy of pretty girls and young matrons that were present. Luncheon was served at one o'clock in the main dining room. The setting was of palms, hanging baskets and a beautiful floral display. After luncheon a number of the guests played bridge. Among those seated at the luncheon table were Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop, Miss Elsa Renjes, Miss Meier, Mrs. Harold Chase, Mrs. Gustav Schaefer, Miss Rosie Herbert, Miss Emily Rice, Miss Alice Waterhouse, Miss Helen Alexander, Miss Dorothy Wood, Miss Wilhelmina Tenney and Miss Beatrice Holsworth.

Mrs. Walker's Dinner.

At her home in Nuuanu Valley, Mrs. Jane Walker entertained at dinner in honor of Mrs. C. B. Wells. This dinner was in the nature of a farewell, as Mr. and Mrs. Wells left Wednesday on the Sierra for San Francisco. This affair was a pretty one. The table was ornamented in roses and smilax. Covers were arranged for twelve.

Mr. and Mrs. Du Roi's Dinner.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Carl Du Roi entertained at dinner at their Nuuanu Valley home in honor of Mrs. Renjes and Miss Elsa Renjes. The large circular table was decorated in white carnations and maidenhair fern. Attractive place cards were found at the place of each guest. Among those who enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Du Roi's hospitality were Mrs. Renjes, Miss Renjes, Mr. and Mrs. Constable and Mr. Wolters.

Mrs. Jacobs-Bond's Recital.

Mrs. Carrie Jacobs-Bond is to give a recital in the Parish house of the Central Union church on Friday evening June 17. This is very good news to the old friends of Mrs. Jacobs-Bond who heard her during her first visit to the city, and also gratifying to those who have heard of her and have longed for the opportunity of listening to the interpretation of her compositions. Mrs. Bond as an author and publisher, has made a great success. To listen to her interpretation of her songs, is to be with the characters she represents. Laying no claim to being either an elocutionist or a vocalist she carries her audience with her in a style that is almost hypnotic. And the best of it is, that pleasant memories and pleasant thoughts are the "left overs" of her recitals. She strikes a strain of pathos that starts tears to the eye, but it is the kindly, lovable, comfortable sort with the harshness entirely removed. Her song "In Dear Hawaii" has become a favorite throughout the islands and a permanent part of the island music.

Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club.

The Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club met with Mrs. John Hornberger at her artistic home on Green street. Wednesday was an ideal day for playing cards, although raining. It was cool—one is so used to the sunshiny days in "Fair Hawaii" that when an occasional showery day comes, unless one's mind is occupied with some form of entertainment, we are apt to be discontented. All the members attended Wednesday and an enjoyable day was spent, the hostess having done everything conceivable for the comfort and entertainment of her guests. Mrs. Turner won the first prize, a silver bonbon spoon. Mrs. Putnam was awarded the second, a souvenir spoon. About 4:30 o'clock delicious refreshments were served. Among those present were Mrs. John Hornberger, Mrs. Lane, Mrs. Putnam, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Arthur Marx, Mrs. Frederick Ramsey, Mrs. Frank Roberts, Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Pardee, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Chaulker, Mrs. Shedy, Mrs. Wilcox and Mrs. Falls.

Buffet Luncheon.

One of the most elaborate affairs of the week was the buffet luncheon given by Mrs. Arthur Wilder at her artistic bungalow at Waikiki. Luncheon was served at one o'clock on the large lanai overlooking the sea. The repast was served from a long table banked with Marguerites and Australia maidenhair ferns. After luncheon, the guests and their charming hostess devoted the afternoon to bridge. Among the guests were Mrs. George Potter, Mrs. Robert Atkinson, Mrs. Harold Giffard, Mrs. C. B. High, Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. J. S. Walker, Mrs. Arthur Berg, Miss Alice Roth, Miss Lady Macfarlane, Miss Alice Macfarlane, Mrs. Frederick Klebahn, Miss Helen Alexander, Mrs. Mannie Phillips, Mrs. Harry Lewis, Miss Winston, Mrs. Alexander Campbell, Mrs. Jack Dowsett, Mrs. E. A. Jones, Mrs. Joseph Gilman, Mrs. Ralph Forster and Mrs. George Rodick, and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillingham's Dinner.

Twelve covers encircled the beautifully appointed dinner table at which Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham presided as host and hostess at their attractive bungalow on Beretania avenue. This entertainment was given in honor of Mrs. Dillingham's mother, Mrs. Hyde-Smith of San Francisco, who will spend the summer months with her daughter and son-in-law. The dinner table was ornamented with white carnations and maidenhair fern, while here and there were silver candlesticks with shades of the new Tiffany green. After dinner a musical evening was enjoyed. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Mrs. Hyde-Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bryant Cooper, Major and Mrs. Dunning and Mr. and Mrs. George Potter.

Dr. and Mrs. Phillip Frear's Dinner.

Yellow coreopsis adorned the dinner table at the dinner which was given by Dr. and Mrs. Frear, Tuesday evening, at the Hotel Courtland. This affair was given in honor of Miss Eva Lindeman. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Percy Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Lindeman, and Mr. Edwards.

Big Doings at Outrigger Club.

This evening will be a gala night at the Outrigger Club, and at the Moana Hotel. A chowder will be served at the club from five o'clock until eight. After that a water carnival will take place. Dancing will take place in the pavilion of the Outrigger Club, and also at the Moana and Seaside Hotels. A charge of a dollar will be made for the chowder. This also entitles one to dance at all of the three places. Excellent music will be furnished. The large dining room at the Moana has been engaged for the occasion. This floor has been put in fine condition for dancing. Music will be furnished by Kaul's Hawaiian Quintette Club. From 8:30 to 11 o'clock the Royal Hawaiian Band will play at the Moana Hotel. Don't hesitate to spend your dollar. Think what you will get in return—a delicious fish chowder with all the accessories, and a whole evening of fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory's Dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Emory entertained at dinner Thursday evening in honor of Mr. Emory's mother and father's fifty-first wedding anniversary. Last year Mr. and Mrs. Emory celebrated their golden wedding at their son's home. On this occasion the Emorys' beautiful valley home was decorated throughout with "gold-on-shower," which grows so luxuriously in Honolulu. Last evening's celebration was of a quiet nature, owing to the indisposition of Mrs. Emory. Sr. The table was massed with long stemmed American Beauty roses. Among the guests were Dr. and Mrs. Phillip Frear, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coombs, Mr. and Mrs. Lorrin Thurston, Mr. Merriam, and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips' Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Mannie Phillips entertained ten of their friends at dinner Thursday evening. The table was artistically decorated in cut flowers and maidenhair fern. Handsome place cards indicated the place of each one of the guests. After dinner a musical evening was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon entertained.

A dozen of their friends at dinner Monday evening. The table was decorated in yellow roses. After a delightful sojourn of several months Mr. and Mrs. Gordon departed Wednesday on the Sierra for their home on the mainland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop returned.

last week to their valley home after a several months' sojourn at their residence at Waikiki. The Frederick Klebahn is occupying this beach villa for the present and are entertaining their numerous friends in an enjoyable and informal manner.

Admiral and Mrs. Rees and Major and Mrs. Dunning are making a tour.

of the islands. They left Honolulu Friday and will not return until late Sunday. This tour will be taken in a leisurely manner. The scenery is so beautiful, when in autos on account of the rapid transit many bits of the scenery go by unobserved. In this instance, this trip is being done by driving. The different nights will be spent with friends at their country homes which are situated on the windward side of the island. Sunday will be spent at Haleiwa. There are so many beautiful attractions at this beautiful resort that one is always sure of a pleasant sojourn.

Governor and Mrs. Frear's Dinner.

The gubernatorial mansion was the scene of a brilliant dinner Monday evening. Covers were laid for fourteen, and the table was decorated in orchids. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tenney, Mrs. Carrie Jacobs-Bond, Miss Elchler, Mrs. Wright, Miss Grundy, Judge Beatty, Prof. Scott, Prof. Uramata of Tokio, and others.

Mrs. Cockroft of Oakland, with her two daughters, Miss Charlotte and Miss Grace, are sojourning at the Moana Hotel.

Miss Grace Watham of California is also of the party. Mr. Cockroft, who is general passenger agent of the Oceanic S. S. Co., will arrive on the next Wilhelmina and join his family at the Moana.

Mr. Dondoro's Dinner.

Mr. Dondoro entertained Saturday evening in honor of Miss Eva Lindeman at a dinner party at the Young Hotel. The table was bedecked in violets. Among those present were Miss Lindeman, Miss Genevieve Langton, Mr. Dondoro and Lieutenant Ahern.

Mrs. Frear's Luncheon.

Mrs. Frear, wife of Governor Frear, entertained at luncheon Saturday in honor of Mrs. Wright, daughter of Judge Beatty of California. About twenty guests were invited to meet the guest of honor. Roses were used as an ornamentation for the table.

Tea at Country Club.

Mrs. Walter Hoffman entertained informally at tea at the Country Club, Wednesday afternoon. Tea was served on the mahai veranda, and the dozen guests that were present spent an enjoyable afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers' Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivers entertained at dinner Thursday evening in honor of Mr. William G. Irwin. The table was ornamented with roses and smilax. Covers were laid for sixteen. After dinner bridge whist was played until a late hour.

Admiral and Mrs. Rees' Dinner.

Mr. William G. Irwin was the complimented guest Tuesday evening at the dinner which was given by Admiral and Mrs. Rees. The color scheme for this function was pink and green. A delicate shade of pink carnations, combined with maidenhair fern, decorated the center of the table. Hand-painted place cards indicated the places of the guests. After dinner several rubbers of bridge were enjoyed. The following people were numbered among Admiral and

Mrs. Rees' guests: Major and Mrs. Dunning, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Mrs. Hyde-Smith of San Francisco, Miss May Damon, Mr. William G. Irwin, Doctor Smith of the U. S. Navy and Mr. Paul Muhlenberg.

Stag Dinner.

Lieutenant Bowen, U. S. A., entertained at a stag dinner Monday evening at the Young Hotel. The affair ushers, and fellow officers at Fort was given in honor of his best man, Shafter. The beautiful table glowed with softly shaded candles and the center piece was of scarlet carnations. Many toasts were drunk to the future Mrs. Bowen and many witty speeches exchanged, and an enjoyable evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Klebahn's Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Klebahn entertained Saturday at dinner in honor of Mrs. Renjes. The decorations were entirely in roses. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Klebahn, Mrs. Renjes, Mr. and Mrs. Dowsett, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bryant Cooper, Miss Walker and Mrs. Hobdy Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips' Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Mannie Phillips entertained ten of their friends at dinner Thursday evening. The table was artistically decorated in cut flowers and maidenhair fern. Handsome place cards indicated the place of each one of the guests. After dinner a musical evening was enjoyed.

Dyspepsia Cured

A well-known woman of Camden, N. J., U. S. A., writes an interesting letter praising Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for relieving her husband and herself of serious stomach troubles.

"Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has done me and my husband a great deal of good. At times when I could not eat or retain anything on my stomach a tablespoonful of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey would give me strength and relieve me of that tired nervous feeling.

"My husband had stomach trouble and indigestion from childhood. It became so bad he had to quit work. He began taking Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, a tablespoonful before meals and at bed time. He was soon able to go to work and eat a hearty meal.

MRS. SARA E. SCOTT

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is palatable and agreeable to the most sensitive stomach. I certainly am a friend of yours for the benefits derived from your medicine and heartily recommend it to all."—Mrs. Sara E. Scott, 502 N. 5th Street, Camden, N. J., U. S. A.
